DATA SEARCH TERMS & CONDITIONS

Copyrights

- The data held by Buckinghamshire and Milton Keynes Environmental Records Centre (BMERC) belongs either to BMERC or to those organisations, groups and individuals from which BMERC sources information. In all respects copyrights shall remain vested in such parties notwithstanding any payments made.
- All site boundaries have been mapped using Ordnance Survey data and where Ordnance Survey material has been provided all relevant licences are in place for such production or reproduction. Persons viewing this material should contact Ordnance Survey for advice if they wish to licence Ordnance Survey data for their own use.

Data accuracy

- BMERC does not guarantee the accuracy of any information supplied and shall have no liability for any loss, damage or expense incurred as the result of reliance on any information supplied.
- BMERC can only provide information based on the data held by us. In particular, the absence of records for a species does not necessarily indicate that the species itself is absent, merely that we have not received records for it.
- Please note that this data search does NOT include Archaeological or Heritage data, please contact the Buckinghamshire Heritage Team if you require this.

Protected Species

- We will not release records where it might be to the detriment of wildlife or where we suspect that the information will be used to interfere illegally with protected species. Some records are classified as sensitive and can only be supplied in summary form

Access and use of data

- The data in this report is only licenced for use for the purpose outlined in this data search. It must not be used for other commercial purposes.
- When publishing information derived from this data, BMERC and the date of receipt must be acknowledged. For example: This [document/table/map] incorporates biodiversity data supplied to [organisation/company] by Buckinghamshire and Milton Keynes Environmental Records Centre (BMERC) on [dd/mm/yyyy], and is copyright to BMERC and/or its partners. For more details see: www.bucksmkerc.org.uk.
- The data supplied in this report must not be added to a permanent database without prior permission from BMERC. E.g. Added to a GIS system. A digital data licence is needed if you want to do this.
- The data supplied is licenced for use for a maximum of six (6) months only. This is because data held by BMERC is updated regularly and will quickly become out-of-date. The licence can be renewed by submitting a data search request.
- Protected species records should be kept out of the public domain.

Digital Datasets (e.g. Excel spreadsheet of species records)

- At or before the end of the licence period the digital dataset(s) must be erased from the licensee's digital and paper files (or archived and made unavailable for use if constrained for legal or insurance reasons).
- Digital dataset(s) may not be supplied to third parties without the written consent of BMERC.
- Digital datasets may not be reproduced in the public domain without the written consent of BMERC.

Planning applications

- BMERC does not provide planning advice and will not offer opinions on planning applications and planning related matters.
